A warm welcome to our Summer programme of shows & events

The year has been nice and busy and we have some really great shows coming up. Children's shows include Rapunzel, Goldilocks the Ballet, The Lion inside, Peppa Pig and Fireman Sam. Please also remember to book your tickets for our pantomime, Sleeping Beauty, as tickets are selling fast.

Comedy is popular as ever, especially our comedy club "Live at the Radlett". We also welcome Mark Watson and Simon Evans in their own shows. We also have some wonderful musical evenings in the programme.

In January we were very fortunate to have our auditorium seating renewed. For this we would like to thank the very generous donations made by John Apthorp and Aldenham Parish Council.

Another Day in the Life

The second week of June is national Carers Week and to recognise this we will be exhibiting photographs produced by local unpaid carers.

One of the groups, the (Carers in Hertfordshire) Carers' Camera Club, established in 2011, has been a source of creativity, relaxation and support for unpaid carers in the county for 13 years. Members are all unpaid carers or volunteers, who enjoy photography, and all are registered with the charity.

On display will be a selection of photographic images from current, and some bereaved, unpaid family and friend carers. Some of the images will show what life with caring responsibilities is like as well as creative and artistic photographs.
